Claim Form and Personal Statement

When an employee is absent from work due to a serious illness or incapacity, we understand the value of an efficient and timely claim decision. By following the steps below, we will be able to assess your claim as quickly as possible.

This form is divided into 2 parts:

Part A – Claim Form (p1-7)

1 The Employer should complete Part A, then return it to Canada Life.

Please ensure the Group Policy Number and Policyholder Name boxes are completed on the Claim Form and Personal Statement prior to sending Part B to the employee.

2 The Employer should provide medical information. Medical information should be from the start of the absence to date.

Photocopies, scanned copies or photographed images are acceptable.

This might include:

- Occupational Health reports
- GP fit notes

3 The Employer should send Part B to the Employee who should complete the Personal Statement.

Part B – Personal Statement (p8-16)

1 The Employee should complete Part B and ensure the employee declaration and consent on page 16 is signed before returning to Canada Life. This must be provided with a handwritten (ie not electronic) signature. Please make sure you confirm whether you wish to see any reports requested from your doctor.

We cannot process the claim without this consent.

2 The Employee should provide medical information. Medical information should be from the start of the absence to date. Photocopies, scanned copies or photographed images are acceptable.

Note:

Part B of this form must be provided with a handwritten signature, but we can accept a scanned image of handwritten signatures.

How we assess the claim

When Parts A+B have been received, the information will be combined and a claim assessor will then review the information. The claim assessor may call the Employer to discuss the claim. A Canada Life Nurse may call the Employee to discuss the claim. When all the information required has been received, we will write to confirm the outcome.

The right of appeal is available if you disagree with our claim assessment outcome and a complaint can be raised at any point throughout the process.

Data Protection Statement

Canada Life Limited takes its privacy obligations very seriously.

Any personal information provided to us, as data controller, by a policyholder, joint policyholder, employer policyholder, trustee, insured person, beneficiary, claimant or member will be treated in accordance with the Data Protection Act.

By signing the declaration below, you confirm that you agree to us using, processing and sharing the personal information (including special categories of personal data) provided to us for the purposes set out in the Data Protection Statement and Data Protection Notice shown overleaf.

For employer-related group insurance products the Data Protection Act permits appropriate information about employees to be provided by an employer to an insurer without individual consent (including details of longterm absentees, current and previous claimants, and medical underwriting decisions).

We use personal information to undertake activities relating to the setting up, administration and renewal of our policies, products and services. This includes processing applications and handling any claims. For the majority of our business we will rely on the performance of our contractual arrangements with you as the legal basis for processing.

We do not use personal data for marketing purposes.
Please see the Data Protection Notice overleaf for full details.

Employer Declaration

By signing the declaration below, you confirm that you agree to us using, processing and sharing the personal information (including special categories of personal data) provided to us for the purposes set out in the Data Protection Statement and Data Protection Notice shown overleaf.

We, the policyholder, hereby apply for payment of benefit(s) in accordance with the Policy. We declare that the employee was a Member of the scheme on the date of last attendance at work and that to the best of our knowledge and belief the particulars set out on the preceding pages are complete and true. (Failure to give complete and true answers could result in the payment of any benefit being refused.)

Part A - Data Protection Notice

Canada Life Limited (referred to as ‘Canada Life’, ‘we’, ‘us’ or ‘our’ in this DPN) takes its privacy obligations very seriously. Any personal information provided to us, as data controller, by a policyholder, joint policyholder, employer policyholder, trustee, insured person, beneficiary, claimant or member (referred to as ‘you’ or ‘your’ in this DPN), will be treated in accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018.

Using personal information

We use personal information to undertake activities relating to the setting up, administration and renewal of our policies, products and services. This includes processing applications and handling any claims. For the majority of our business we will rely on the performance of our contractual arrangements with you as the legal basis for processing.

We do not use policyholder or member personal data for marketing purposes and we do not make your personal information available to third parties for the purpose of direct marketing.

The nature of our business is to provide investments, life and pensions cover, critical illness, income protection and employer related group products. To do this we need to use the personal information provided to carry out analysis of actuarial risks (risks of gains or losses), mortality and morbidity risks and pricing. This will be carried out in accordance with the Institute & Faculty of Actuaries’ data handling protocols.

We use underwriting software to process some applications and quotations which will use an element of automated decision making.

Exceptionally, we may rely on our legitimate interests to process your personal data. When we do, we will demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for doing so.

For employer-related group insurance products

The Data Protection Act permits appropriate information about employees to be provided by an employer to an insurer without individual consent (including details of long-term absentees, current and previous claimants, and medical underwriting decisions).

For employer-related group products the Data Protection Act permits that members may individually withdraw their consent. In those instances Canada Life will be unable to provide cover for that individual.

When medically underwriting or assessing a claim we will obtain consent from the employee.

Sharing personal information

We share personal information only on the basis of the purposes for which it was collected. This notice is intended to illustrate the instances where data may be shared. However, we will share your data only for the limited and compatible purposes for which it was originally obtained:

- with other Canada Life group companies including those outside the European Economic Area (EEA);

- with any of our service providers, reinsurers and/or regulators;
- with other insurers and government agencies, including without limitation Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs (HMRC), Department of Work and Pensions (DWP);
- in order to prevent, detect or investigate financial crime including fraud or other criminal activity, we may share your data with other companies (including private investigators), organisations (including fraud prevention agencies and databases), public bodies (including the police) and associations and credit reference agencies;
- we will not share your medical information with anyone other than yourself without your consent except as described in the next bullet point. This includes your employer, spouse, other relatives, friends or your legal or financial adviser. In some circumstances, it may be appropriate to advise your employer about your medical information, for example, to recommend alternative supportive therapy. However, we will seek your consent in such circumstances;
- for employer-related products and services only, some medical information related to underwriting decisions and non-medical information about you necessary for lawful policy and claim administration purposes will be shared with your employer;
- we will not share non-medical information concerning you with your spouse, other relatives, friends or your legal or financial adviser unless you provide your consent to us in writing;
- for insurance related products, with your own doctor or relevant medical professionals; and/or
- in any circumstances if permitted or required to do so by law or if we have your consent to do so.

International transfers

Given the global nature of our business, we use third party suppliers and outsourced services (including cloud based services), which can require transfers of personal information outside of the EEA. In doing so, we ensure that there are appropriate contractual arrangements and we will choose only those organisations with strict controls in place, via appropriate organisational and technical measures in place to protect your personal information.

Retention of your personal data

We will keep your personal data only for so long as is necessary and for the purpose for which it was originally collected. In particular, for so long as there is any possibility that either you or we may wish to bring a legal claim under this insurance, or where we are required to keep your personal data due to legal or regulatory reasons.

Your rights and contact details of the Information Commissioner’s Office (ICO)

You may have the right to require us to:

- provide you with further details on the use we make of your personal information or your special categories of data;
- provide you with a copy of the personal information that you have provided to us or which we hold;
- update any inaccuracies in the personal information we hold;
- delete any special category of data or personal information for which we no longer have lawful grounds to use;
- cease processing of your personal information that is based on consent, by withdrawing your consent to that particular processing;
- cease any processing based on legitimate interests grounds, unless our reasons for undertaking that processing outweigh any prejudice to your data protection rights; and
- restrict how we use your personal information whilst a complaint is being investigated.

In certain circumstances, we may need to restrict the rights listed above in order to safeguard the public interest (e.g. the prevention or detection of crime), our interests (e.g. the maintenance of our legal responsibilities) and for the performance of our contract with an employer who is the policyholder for employer-related products and services.

Data Protection Officer (DPO)

If you have any questions, or complaints, in relation to our use of your personal information, you should first contact our DPO, on the details below:

Canada Life Limited
Canada Life Place, Potters Bar,
Hertfordshire, EN6 5BA
or by email at: dpo@canadalife.co.uk.

In the unlikely event that you are dissatisfied with our response, you have the right to take the matter up with the Information Commissioner’s Office (ICO), whose address is:

Claim Form and Personal Statement

When an employee is absent from work due to a serious illness or incapacity, we understand the value of an efficient and timely claim decision. By following the steps below, we will be able to assess your claim as quickly as possible.

Part B – Personal Statement

Your Employer has completed Part A and will return directly to Canada Life.

You, the Employee, should complete Part B and ensure the employee declaration and consent on page 16 is signed before returning to Canada Life. Please make sure you confirm whether you wish to see any reports requested from your doctor.

We cannot process the claim without this consent.

If the Employee is unable to sign the consent, call Canada Life on 0117 916 4465.

The Employee should provide medical information. Medical information should be from the start of the absence to date.

Photocopies, scanned copies or photographed images are acceptable.

This might include:

- Hospital discharge letters following attendance for treatment
- Copies of letters from a treating doctor or specialist
- Test results or radiography reports
- Correspondence from the General Practitioner relating to the incapacity
- Occupational Health reports
- GP fit notes.

How we assess the claim

When Parts A+B have been received, the information will be combined and a claim assessor will then review the information. The claim assessor may call the Employer to discuss the claim. A Canada Life Nurse may call the Employee to discuss the claim. When all the information required has been received, we will write to confirm the outcome.

The right of appeal is available if you disagree with our claim assessment outcome and a complaint can be raised at any point throughout the process.

Note:

Part B of this form must be provided with a handwritten signature, but we can accept a scanned image of handwritten signatures.

Part B - Access to medical reports – your rights

We may need to get medical reports in order to assess this claim in respect of you. Before we can ask any doctor that you have consulted to fill in a report, we need your permission under the Access to Medical Reports Act 1988, or the Access to Personal Files and Medical Reports (Northern Ireland) Order 1991.

The medical report your doctor fills in asks about the following:

Your current health

- Any care, medication or treatment you are currently receiving.
- The results of referrals or tests you are waiting for.
- Any time off work in the last three years.

Your past health

- Details of any relevant illness, trauma, or referrals for specialist advice or treatment, hospital admissions, consultations with your GP or any other medical adviser, therapist or counsellor, in particular whether you have a history of:
 - malignancy (cancer), cardiovascular (heart) disease, diabetes, and degenerative (gradually worsening) diseases;
 - musculoskeletal disease or injury, for example, arthritis, rheumatism, back problems or any other disorder of the joints or muscles;
 - anxiety, depression, neurosis (such as phobias, obsessions etc.), psychosis (a mental disorder where you lose contact with reality), stress or fatigue; suicidal thoughts or attempts at suicide; or
 - conditions related to drug or alcohol misuse or smoking or chewing tobacco.
- Details of any biopsies, blood tests, electrocardiograms (heart tests), height, weight if measured in the last two years, urinalyses (tests on urine), x-rays or other investigations.
- Any blood pressure readings in the last three years.
- Any history of disease among your parents or brothers or sisters that you have told your doctor about.

We have asked your doctor not to reveal information about:

- negative tests for HIV, hepatitis B or C;
- any sexually-transmitted diseases unless there could be long-term effects on your health; or
- predictive genetic test results unless there is a favourable test result which shows that you have not inherited a condition your family suffers from.

Your rights under the act are as follows:

- You do not need to give your permission, but if you do not, we may not be able to assess this claim in respect of you.
- This does not prevent you from applying personally to other companies for insurance.
- You can ask to see the report before the doctor returns it to us. If this is the case, we will tell the doctor to keep the report for 21 days so that you can arrange to see it. If you have not made arrangements to see the report within this time, your doctor will send the report to us.
- If you choose not to see the report at this stage, you may ask the doctor for a copy within six months of it being sent to us. We can send a copy of the report to your doctor if you ask to see it at a later date.
- If you think that any part of the report is not correct or is misleading, you may ask the doctor to amend it. If your doctor refuses to make the amendments, you may ask him or her to attach a statement outlining your views, which will then accompany the report.
- Your doctor can withhold access to the report if he or she feels that it would cause physical or mental harm to you or others.

Got a question

If you have any questions about your rights under the act or questions relating to the process of getting, assessing or storing medical information, please write to the Data Protection Officer or the Head of Privacy and Data Protection at Canada Life.
