8. Exercise of Trustees' powers and formalities for consent

- (1) Subject to the provisions of clause 13 and subject as otherwise specifically herein provided all powers vested in the Trustees by this settlement or by law shall be exercisable by the Trustees at their absolute and uncontrolled discretion at such time (if at all) during the Trust Period in such manner and to such extent as the Trustees in their like discretion think fit.
- (2) No Beneficiary or other person for the time being interested in the income of the Beneficiaries' Fund shall have any right to compel the Trustees to invest all or any part of the Beneficiaries' Fund in property producing income or to exercise any voting or other rights vested in the Trustees so as to ensure the payment of a dividend interest or other income in respect of any part of the Beneficiaries' Fund.
- (3) Section 11 of the Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act 1996 shall not apply to this settlement.
- (4) Where there is more than one Trustee the Trustees shall act by unanimous decision.

9. Additional investment and administrative powers of Trustee

In the administration of the Beneficiaries' Fund the Trustees (without the intervention of any person) shall have all the investment and administrative powers and the immunities set out in the first schedule in addition to those vested in the Trustees by law.

10. Exclusion of Sections 31 and 32

Neither section 31 nor section 32 of the Trustee Act 1925 shall apply to the trusts of the Beneficiaries' Fund.

11. Appointment, retirement of Trustee

- (1) The provisions contained in the second schedule shall apply in regulating the number, appointment and retirement of the Trustees and ancillary matters therein specified.
- (2) Sections 19 and 20 of the Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act 1996 shall not apply to this settlement.

12. Release of powers

The Trustees may at any time during the Trust Period by any deed or deeds revocable during the Trust Period or irrevocable and executed before the Closing Date wholly or partially release or restrict the future exercise of all or any of the powers conferred upon the Trustees by this settlement or by law notwithstanding the fiduciary nature of the power in question.

13. Overriding restrictions

Notwithstanding anything in this settlement contained or implied (but subject, in respect of sub-clause (2), of this clause to clause 14) in relation only to the Beneficiaries' Fund

- (1) this settlement shall not be construed so as to confer or purport to confer on the Trustees any trust or power which might or could be exercised or if exercised revoked at any time outside the period permitted by any applicable rule against perpetuities
- (2) none of the powers authorities or discretions hereby or by law conferred on the Trustees or on any other person shall at any time or in any circumstances whatsoever be exercisable in any manner which may benefit the Settlor (or either of them)
- (3) no exercise of any power contained in this settlement shall invalidate any prior payment transfer or application of all or any part of the Beneficiaries' Fund or the income thereof made under any power conferred by this settlement or by law.

14. Right to recover income tax

- (1) The Settlor (or either of them) shall be entitled to enforce his statutory right to recover income tax for which he is liable under Chapter 9 Part 4 of the Income Tax (Trading and Other Income) Act 2005 against the Trustees from the property of the Beneficiaries' Fund to the extent only that section 538 of that Act entitles him at law so to do.
- (2) The Trustees shall be obliged on application by the Settlor to pay to the Settlor (or either of them) from the property of the Beneficiaries' Fund such amount as he is entitled to recover notwithstanding that (but for this clause) such statutory right of recovery is not or may not be enforceable as against the Trustees (and so that for the purposes of this clause a certificate of an officer of HM Revenue & Customs as to the amount of income tax which is recoverable by the Settlor (or either of them) under section 538 of the Income Tax (Trading and Other Income) Act 2005 shall be conclusive evidence of the amount and shall be conclusive and binding on the Trustees and all persons beneficially interested in the property of the Beneficiaries' Fund).

15. Invalidity

If at any time any provision of this settlement is or becomes invalid illegal or unenforceable in any respect under or in any respect contrary to any law the validity legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this settlement shall not be in any way affected or impaired thereby.

16. Agreement to the Data Protection Notice

All parties hereby confirm that they have read, understood and agree to the Data Protection Notice on page 10. Where individual Beneficiaries are specified, the Settlor and the Trustees hereby undertake to ensure that they are provided with a copy of the statement and made aware of their rights thereunder.

17. Declaration of tax residence outside Ireland

This clause shall apply where the Policies being assigned is issued by Canada Life International Assurance (Ireland) DAC.

Tax residence definition – individual

An individual will be regarded as being tax resident in Ireland for a tax year if she/he either:

- spends 183 days or more in Ireland in that tax year, or
- has a combined presence of 280 days in Ireland, taking into account the number of days spent in Ireland in that tax year together with the number of days spent in Ireland in the preceding year. Presence in a tax year by an individual of not more than 30 days in Ireland will not be reckoned for the purpose of applying the two-year test. Presence in Ireland for a day means the personal presence of an individual:
 - at the end of the day (midnight) for tax years 2008 and earlier, and
 - at any time during that day for tax year 2009 onwards.

Ordinary tax residence definition – individual

The term ‘ordinary residence’ as distinct from ‘residence’ relates to a person’s normal pattern of life and denotes residence in a place with some degree of continuity. An individual who has been resident in Ireland for three consecutive tax years becomes ordinarily resident with effect from the commencement of the fourth tax year.

An individual who has been ordinarily resident in Ireland ceases to be ordinarily resident at the end of the third consecutive tax year in which s/he is not resident. Thus, an individual who is resident and ordinarily resident in Ireland in 2009 and departs from Ireland in that year will remain ordinarily resident up to the end of the tax year 2012.

All parties are required by the Irish Revenue Commissioners to make the following declaration set out below, which is in a format authorised by them, in order to receive payments without deduction of Irish tax.

I/We* declare that

- I/We* have read the explanation of the terms detailed in the ‘Tax residence definitions’ above.
- I am/We are* the applicant(s) in respect of which this declaration is being made.
- I am/We are* not resident or ordinarily resident in Ireland.
- I/We* hereby undertake(s) to inform the Company of any change in my/our country of residence during the life of the account/policy.
(* Delete as appropriate).

Note: Policies issued by Canada Life International Assurance (Ireland) DAC cannot be assigned to individuals resident in Ireland (for tax purposes as described above or otherwise).

Data Protection Notice (DPN)

Any personal information you may provide to Canada Life International Limited (CLI) as data controller will be treated in accordance with the Isle of Man Data Protection Act (as amended)

Any personal information that you may provide to Canada Life International Assurance (Ireland) DAC as data controller will be treated in accordance with the Data Protection Acts (as amended)

(CLI, CLIAI & CLL together will be defined as 'Canada Life' in this notice).

By signing this form you consent to Canada Life using and sharing your personal information as set out in this notice including, without limitation, the processing of sensitive personal data.

If submitting personal information about another person, by signing this form you confirm that you have their consent to provide such information to Canada Life and for their information to be used as set out in this notice.

Using Personal Information

We use personal information to undertake activities relating to the setting up, administration and renewal of our policies, products and services. This includes processing applications and handling any claims. For the majority of our business we will rely on the performance of our contractual arrangements with you as the legal basis for processing.

We do not use policyholder or member personal data for marketing purposes and we do not make your personal information available to third parties for the purpose of direct marketing.

The nature of our business is to provide investments, life and pensions cover, critical illness, income protection and employer-related group products. To do this we need to use the personal information provided to carry out analysis of actuarial risks (risks of gains or losses), mortality and morbidity risks and pricing. This will be carried out in accordance with the Institute & Faculty of Actuaries' data handling protocols.

We use an underwriting engine to process some applications and quotations which will use an element of automated decision making.

Exceptionally, we may rely on our legitimate interests to process your personal data. When we do, we will demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for doing so.

For employer-related group insurance products the Data Protection Act permits appropriate information about employees to be provided by an employer to an insurer without individual consent (including details of long-term absentees, current and previous claimants, and medical underwriting decisions).

For employer-related group products the Data Protection Act permits that members may individually withdraw their consent, in those instances Canada Life will be unable to provide cover for that individual.

When medically underwriting or assessing a claim we will obtain consent from the employee.

Sharing personal information

We share personal information only on the basis of the purposes for which it was collected. This notice is intended to illustrate the instances where data may be shared. However, we will share your data only for the limited and compatible purposes for which it was originally obtained:

- with other Canada Life group companies including those outside the European Economic Area (EEA);
- with any of our service providers, reinsurers and / or regulators;
- with other insurers and government agencies, including without limitation Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs (HMRC), Department of Work and Pensions (DWP);
- in order to prevent, detect or investigate financial crime including fraud or other criminal activity, we may share your data with other companies (including private investigators), organisations (including fraud prevention agencies and databases), public bodies (including the police) and associations and credit reference agencies;
- we will not share your medical information with anyone other than yourself without your consent except as described in the next bullet point. This includes your employer, spouse, other relatives, friends or your legal or professional adviser. In some circumstances, it may be appropriate to advise your employer about your medical information, for example, to recommend alternative supportive therapy. However, we will seek your consent in such circumstances;
- for employer-related products and services only, some medical information related to underwriting decisions and non-medical information about you necessary for lawful policy and claim administration purposes will be shared with your employer;
- we will not share non-medical information concerning you with your spouse, other relatives, friends or your legal or professional adviser unless you provide your consent to us in writing;
- for insurance related products, with your own doctor or relevant medical professionals; and/or
- in any circumstances if permitted or required to do so by law or if we have your consent to do so.

International Transfers

Given the global nature of our business, we use third party suppliers and outsourced services (including cloud-based services), which can require transfers of personal information outside of the EEA. In doing so, we will ensure there are contractual arrangements in place with those organisations who have appropriate organisational and technical measures to protect your personal information.

Retention of your personal data

We will keep your personal data only for so long as is necessary and for the purpose for which it was originally collected. In particular, for so long as there is any possibility that either you or we may wish to bring a legal claim under this insurance, or where we are required to keep your personal data due to legal or regulatory reasons.

YOUR RIGHTS AND CONTACT DETAILS OF THE INFORMATION COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE (ICO)

You may have the right to require us to:

- provide you with further details on the use we make of your personal information or your special categories of data;
- provide you with a copy of the personal information that you have provided to us or which we hold;
- update any inaccuracies in the personal information we hold;
- delete any special category of data or personal information for which we no longer have lawful grounds to use;
- cease processing of your personal information that is based on consent, by withdrawing your consent to that particular processing;
- cease any processing based on legitimate interests grounds, unless our reasons for undertaking that processing outweigh any prejudice to your data protection rights; and
- restrict how we use your personal information whilst a complaint is being investigated.

In certain circumstances, we may need to restrict the rights listed above in order to safeguard the public interest (e.g. the prevention or detection of crime), our interests (e.g. the maintenance of our legal responsibilities) and for the performance of our contract with an employer who is the policyholder for employer-related products and services.

15. Non-accountability of Trustees for certain remuneration

- (1) No Trustee shall be accountable for any remuneration or other fee received by him from any company in which shares stock debentures or other securities are for the time being held by the Trustees as part of the Beneficiaries' Fund.

- (2) Any company being a Trustee of this settlement may transact any business which by its constitution it is authorised to undertake upon the same terms as would for the time being be made with an ordinary customer without accounting for any profit made thereby.

16. Receipts to discharge Trustees

Where the Trustees are authorised or required to pay or apply any capital money or income to or for the benefit of

- (1) any person who does not have the capacity to give a valid receipt the Trustees may pay the same to any parent or guardian of such person without seeing to the application of it or apply the same in such manner as may be directed in writing by such parent or guardian and the receipt of such parent or guardian shall be a sufficient discharge to the Trustees.
- (2) any charity the Trustees may pay the same to any person who purports to be the treasurer or other appropriate officer of such charity without seeing to the application of it or apply the same in such manner as may be directed in writing by such treasurer or other appropriate officer and the receipt of such treasurer or other appropriate officer shall be a sufficient discharge to the Trustees.

17. Delegation of Trustees' trusts powers duties and discretions

The Trustees (or any of the Trustees if there are more than one) may delegate all or any of the trusts powers duties and discretions imposed or conferred upon the Trustees by this settlement or by law to any person resident or domiciled in any part of the world (including if thought fit any other Trustee).

18. Exclusion of apportionment

Except where the context otherwise requires all (if any) statutory and equitable rules of apportionment shall not apply to this settlement and the Trustees shall be permitted to treat all dividends and other payments in the nature of income received by them as income at the date of receipt irrespective of the period for which the dividend or other income is payable.

19. Power to amend

The Trustees may at any time by deed or deeds revocable during the Trust Period or irrevocable and executed before the Closing Date amend the provisions of Part 1 and Part 2 of this first schedule to enable them to administer effectively the trusts of the Beneficiaries' Fund.

Part 3Exoneration and indemnity of Trustees

1. Without prejudice to the protection in this regard afforded by law in the professed execution of the trusts and powers of this settlement no Trustee (nor any director or officer of any corporate trustee) shall be liable:
 - (a) for any loss to the Trust Fund arising by reason of any improper investment made or retained in good faith;
 - (b) for the negligence or fraud of any agent employed by such Trustee or by any other Trustee although the employment of such agent was not strictly necessary or expedient provided such employment was in good faith;
 - (c) by reason of any mistake or omission made in good faith by any Trustee;
 - (d) by reason of any other matter or thing except fraud wilful misconduct or negligence on the part of the Trustee whom it is sought to make liable.
2. Each Trustee shall be entitled to exoneration and indemnity out of the Trust Fund for any liability loss or expense incurred hereunder and for any judgment recovered against and paid by such Trustee other than liability loss expense or judgment arising out of his own fraud wilful misconduct or negligence.
3. An audit or other approval in writing of the accounts of this settlement by a recognised accounting firm shall be a complete discharge to the Trustees and shall be binding on any person having an interest of any kind under this settlement.
4. The Trustees shall not be bound or required to interfere in the management or conduct of the business of any company in which the Trustees shall hold shares or other voting rights but so long as there shall be no notice of any act of dishonesty or misappropriation of monies on the part of the directors having the management of such company the Trustees shall be at liberty to leave the conduct of its business (including the payment or non-payment of dividends) wholly to such directors.
5. Where under any provision of this settlement the Trustees are authorised or directed to make any payment to or otherwise to benefit any class of persons including illegitimate persons the Trustees shall be entitled to assume (in the absence of actual knowledge or notice to the contrary) that:
 - (a) there are no illegitimate persons in such class and
 - (b) any person acknowledged by another person to be a child (whether legitimate or illegitimate) of that other person is such a child;The Trustees shall have no liability to any person for any action taken or omission made in reliance on either of the abovementioned assumptions.

Second Schedule

(The provisions referred to in clause 11(1) of Part 6 relating to the appointment and retirement of Trustees and ancillary matters)

1. The minimum number of Trustees of this settlement (or of any part of the Trust Fund in respect of which a separate set of trustees has been appointed) shall be two in the case of individual Trustees and one in the case of a corporate Trustee.
2. So long as the number of Trustees is below the minimum number a continuing Trustee shall not be entitled (save in the event of an emergency) to exercise any discretion or power hereunder other than the power of appointing a new Trustee pursuant to the powers hereinafter contained.
3. Any Trustee who wishes to be discharged from the trusts of this settlement shall give written notice of such wish to the person for the time being entitled to appoint new Trustees and to his co-Trustees (if any) and having given such notice shall be discharged at the expiration of one month from the date when such notice shall have been given or of such shorter period as the said person entitled to appoint new Trustees may agree in writing but so that such discharge shall not take effect unless and until immediately after such discharge there will be (whether by virtue of continuance in office or of an appointment taking effect forthwith upon such discharge) at least the minimum number of Trustees required by paragraph (1) or by any applicable law and unless and until the Trustee wishing to be discharged shall have complied in full with paragraph (7) below.
4. If a Trustee whether original additional or substituted shall die or being a company be dissolved or shall desire to be discharged from all or any of the trusts or powers of this settlement or shall refuse or become unfit to act therein or become incapable of acting therein then the following persons namely:
 - (a) the Settlor (and if there is more than one then all of them who are for the time being in existence) or if he is unable or unwilling to act;
 - (b) the surviving or continuing Trustees for the time being or if there be no surviving or continuing Trustees;
 - (c) the personal representatives constituted in the place of the domicile of the last surviving Trustee (if an individual) or the last Trustee (if a company) may by deed appoint one or more other persons to be a Trustee or Trustees in the place of the Trustee so deceased dissolved desiring to be discharged refusing or being unfit or being incapable as aforesaid.
5. The persons in paragraph (4) mentioned in the same order of succession may by deed appoint one or more other persons to be an additional Trustee or additional Trustees provided that the number of Trustees shall not be increased beyond four.
6. Notwithstanding any rule of law to the contrary no Trustee shall be capable of being removed or replaced on the grounds that he has remained out of the United Kingdom for more than twelve months.
7. An outgoing Trustee shall execute and do all such transfers or other documents acts or things as may be necessary for vesting the Trust Fund in the new or continuing Trustees provided always that an outgoing Trustee who is or may be liable as a Trustee for any taxes duties or imposts shall not be bound to transfer the Trust Fund as aforesaid unless reasonable security is provided for indemnifying such outgoing Trustee against such liability or contingent liability.
8. The expression 'continuing Trustees' in paragraph (4)(b) includes retiring Trustees.

To protect you and us from financial crime, we need to verify the identity and address of all owners, including newly appointed trustees. To assist us, we will require documents sufficient to verify the identity and address of all owners and appointed trustees. In the absence of such documents, we may use credit reference agency searches to verify the identity and address. Please note this will not affect anyone's credit rating.
