What is this product?

Type

The CLI Institutional Elite Account (the “Account”) is a unit-linked investment product. The Account is a life assurance policy.

Objectives

The principal aim of the Account is for your investment to achieve an increase in value over the medium to long term, and to provide an option for a regular income. You are able to invest in a range of investments with the aim of achieving growth, income or a mixture of both through direct exposure to the underlying investment options. The objective of the Account is to defer the effect of UK taxation on the investment whilst retaining: (a) access to the capital; (b) the option to make regular withdrawals, and (c) the ability to switch from one investment to another at any time (switching/dealing will incur transaction fees). You must appoint a Discretionary Fund Manager to manage your investments and you can not invest into Canada Life International internal life funds.

Intended retail investor

The Account is intended for investors who can make a minimum single premium investment of £1,000,000 (or currency equivalent) and additional investments of £100,000 or more (or currency equivalent) can be made at any time. You must be over 18 and under 89 to take out an Account. You must be able to bear the risk of loss associated with your chosen investments.

A management fee is taken on the policy anniversary quarterly in arrears based on the value of units at the end of the quarter. The fee is calculated on a pro-rata basis for the first quarter on the initial premium. The Account must have at least one life assured. Canada Life will pay you £100 (or currency equivalent) in addition to the plan value on the death of the last life assured.

For added flexibility, the Account can be set-up as a number of identical sub-policies with a minimum premium of £2,000.00 per sub-policy.

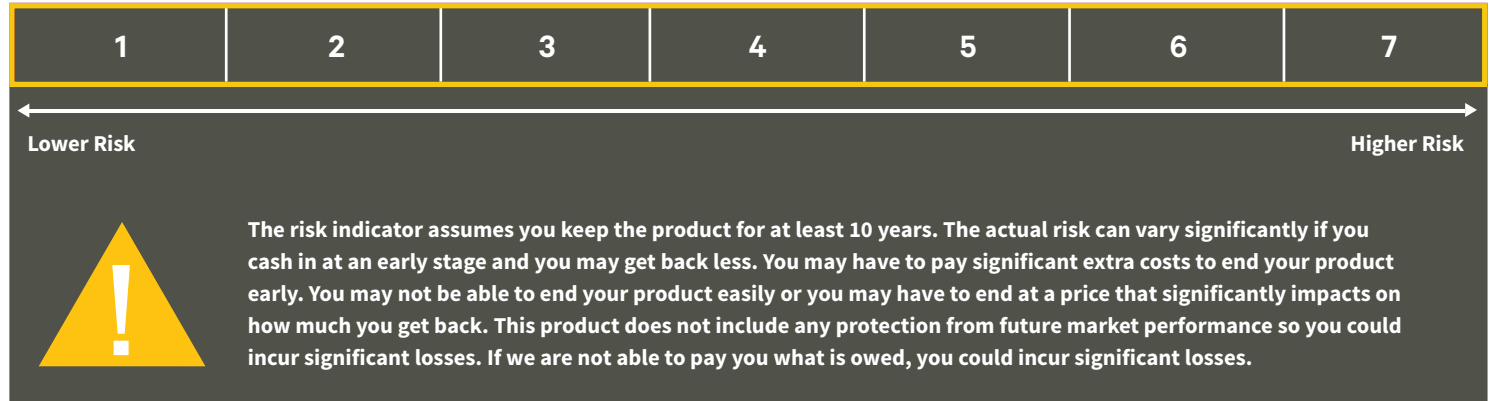

Further information about the Elite Account and investment choices can be found on our website and you should take professional financial advice before making an investment.

There are no circumstances under which Canada Life would be entitled to terminate the Account unilaterally.

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Summary Risk Indicator

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as having a range from a risk class of 1 out of 7 to 7 out of 7 which is a range from the lowest risk class to the highest risk class. You can select investments from within this range. The actual level of risk of this product and how your investment could perform will depend on your choice of underlying investment option(s) and future market performance, so you could lose some or all of your single premium investment(s).

The information on the underlying investment option(s) can be found on the appropriate investment guide(s), which you should read before making your initial investment decision.

What happens if CLI Institutional Limited is unable to pay out?

What are the costs?

The Reduction in Yield ("RIY") shows what impact the total costs you pay will have on the investment return you might get. The total costs take into account one-off, ongoing and incidental costs. The amounts shown here are the cumulative costs of the product itself, for three different holding periods. They include potential early exit penalties. The figures assume you invest £10,000. The figures are estimates and may change in the future.

The person selling you or advising you about this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs, and show you the impact that all costs will have on your investment over time.

Costs over time

Investment of £10,000
Scenarios	If you cash in after 1 Year	If you cash in after 5 Years	If you cash in after 10 years
Total costs	£62 to £838	£306 to £1,870	£614 to £3,510
Impact on return (RIY) per year	0.62% to 8.60%	0.61% to 3.93%	0.61% to 3.71%

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your adviser or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

Composition of costs

The table below shows the impact each year of the different types of costs on the investment return you might get at the end of the recommended holding period and the meaning of the different cost categories.

This table shows the impact on return per year
