If submitting personal data about another person, by signing this form you confirm that you have their consent to provide such information to Canada Life and for their information to be used as set out in this notice.

Using Personal data

We use personal data to undertake activities relating to the setting up, administration and renewal of our policies, products and services. This includes processing applications and handling any claims. For the majority of our business we will rely on the performance of our contractual arrangements with you as the legal basis for processing.

We do not use personal data for marketing purposes and we do not make your personal data available to third parties for the purpose of direct marketing.

The nature of our business is to provide investments, life and pensions cover, critical illness, income protection and employer-related group products. To do this we need to use the personal data provided to carry out analysis of actuarial risks (risks of gains or losses), mortality and morbidity risks and pricing. This will be carried out in accordance with the Institute & Faculty of Actuaries' data handling protocols.

We use underwriting software to process some applications and quotations which will use an element of automated decision making.

Exceptionally, we may rely on our legitimate interests to process your personal data. When we do, we will demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for doing so.

We rely on legitimate interest to process your personal data for statistical analysis, which helps us to improve our processes, products and services. The purpose of this statistical analysis is not to make decisions about you directly, but to undertake data analysis to help us to improve our processes, our products and services. Additionally, we will process your personal data to undertake market research, including customer feedback surveys. To maximise the security of your information, we pseudonymise your personal information where possible. This means removing information from which you can be directly identified.

For employer-related group insurance products the DPA permits appropriate information about employees to be provided by an employer to an insurer without individual consent (including details of long-term absences, current and previous claimants, and medical underwriting decisions).

For employer-related group products the DPA permits that members may individually withdraw their consent, In those instances Canada Life will be unable to provide cover for that individual.

When medically underwriting or assessing a claim we will obtain consent from the employee.

Sharing personal data

International Transfers

In doing so, we ensure there are contractual arrangements in place with those organisations who have organisational and technical measures to protect your personal data.

Retention of your personal data

We will keep your personal data only for so long as is necessary and for the purpose for which it was originally collected. ### Non-EU entities

On 31 January 2020 the UK left the European Union ('EU'), ceasing to be a member. EU law requires that all entities processing the data of EU citizens that are not established in the EU designate in writing a Representative in the EU to be addressed in addition to or instead of that entity by EU citizens on all issues related to data processing. In order to meet our requirements, any Canada Life entity listed above that is not established in the EU, which processes the personal data of EU citizens has designated Canada Life Irish Holding Company Limited, an Irish registered entity within the Canada Life group, as its Representative. The Representative may also be called upon to cooperate with competent supervisory authorities with regard to ensuring compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation ('GDPR').

Contractual clauses in place between Canada Life and its group entities and external suppliers are compliant with the GDPR, which ensures that personal data provided to Canada Life is processed in accordance with our instructions and the requirements of the GDPR. Canada Life will continue to follow and apply all appropriate data protection legislation.

YOUR RIGHTS AND CONTACT DETAILS OF THE INFORMATION COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE (ICO)

- provide you with a copy of the personal data that you have provided to us or which we hold;
- update any inaccuracies in the personal data we hold;
- delete any special category of data or personal data for which we no longer have lawful grounds to use;
- cease processing of your personal data that is based on consent, by withdrawing your consent to that particular processing;
- cease any processing based on legitimate interests grounds, unless our reasons for undertaking that processing outweigh any prejudice to your data protection rights; and
- restrict how we use your personal data whilst a complaint is being investigated.

In certain circumstances, we may need to restrict the rights listed above in order to safeguard the public interest (e.g. the prevention or detection of crime), our interests (e.g. the maintenance of our legal responsibilities) and for the performance of our contract with an employer who is the policyholder for employer-related products and services.
