Terms of business (as at April 2021)

1. Scope

- 1.1 This Agreement is made between the Company and the Intermediary and supersedes any previous terms of business or arrangement between the parties. This Agreement sets out the conditions upon which the Company may accept Business from the Intermediary.
- 1.2 Clients introduced to the Company by the Intermediary may become Clients of the Company, and enter into a client agreement with the Company, even if the Intermediary is the person who normally deals with the Company on behalf of those Clients. The Intermediary will continue to provide advice and other services to those Clients.
- 1.3 The Company reserves the right, at its discretion, not to accept an Application from the Intermediary. Reasons that the Company may refuse an Application from the Intermediary include (but are not limited to) where the Intermediary ceases to be Authorised, fails to maintain the Professional Standards at all times or demonstrates a failure to observe principles relating to the 'fair treatment of customers'.
- 1.4 The Intermediary will remain the agent of its Clients in relation to all aspects of the Products provided by the Company until this Agreement is terminated or until the Company is notified that the Intermediary is no longer acting on the Client's behalf. The Intermediary must explain to the Client what this involves. The Intermediary will, whenever appropriate, advise the Client of all the relevant terms and conditions that apply to the relevant Product, on the suitability of the Product and Investments for the Client and agree any applicable Adviser Charge or third party charge with the Client. We will have no responsibility for the advice or other services the Intermediary provides to its Clients.
- 1.5 In relation to any Product made available to Clients on the Platform, the Intermediary will ensure that it has all relevant authority necessary, acting as agent for its Clients, to appoint a Discretionary Manager to manage Clients' Investments held in connection with the relevant Product in accordance with the Model Portfolios.
- 1.6 The Intermediary does not act as the agent of the Company and has absolutely no authority to enter into any contract or engagement or make any representation or warranty on behalf of or pledge to credit or settle any claim against or otherwise bind the Company.

- 3.10 For the avoidance of doubt, section 3 shall survive termination of this Agreement and shall remain in full force and effect.
- 4. Adviser Charges
- 4.1 If the Intermediary conducts Fee-based Business with the Company, the only payments the Company will make to the Intermediary under this Agreement are Adviser Charge Payments where expressly instructed to do so by the relevant Client. The Company therefore reserves the right to refuse to make any payment to the Intermediary in respect of the Products where the Company reasonably believes that to do so would put it and/or the Intermediary in breach of the Rules.

- 4.5 The Company may refuse to make, or refuse to continue to make, Adviser Charge Payments to the Intermediary where the Product is terminated or where the Company reasonably believes that:
- 4.5.1 the Client has not given the Company its express consent in respect of the Adviser Charge Payment in accordance with the Rules;
- 4.5.2 the Client has ceased to consent to the Adviser Charge Payment;
- 4.5.3 there is insufficient value in the Product to deduct Adviser Charge Payments;
- 4.5.4 the Intermediary ceases to provide an advisory service to the Client;
- 4.5.5 the Adviser Charge varies in any material way from the Intermediary's standard charging structure or if the Adviser Charge appears unreasonable in relation to the Company's understanding of the advice or services provided; or
- 4.5.6 the Adviser Charge Payment may put it, or the Intermediary, in breach of the Rules.
- 4.6 For the avoidance of doubt, the Company will not be liable to the Intermediary in respect of any Adviser Charges owed to the Intermediary by any Client (including, without limitation, where a Client asks the Company not to make an Adviser Charge Payment to the Intermediary).
- 5. Documentation and Transfers
- 5.1 The Intermediary must pass to the Company or Client (as applicable) immediately without amendment, any documentation which is supplied by or made available via the Company, Discretionary Manager or Fund Manager in relation to a Product, Investments or Model Portfolio for the benefit of or completion by the Client, including, but not limited to, any notification, or other documentation required in compliance with the Rules, or any notification or other documentation provided by the Client in relation to the Business.

- 5.6 The Intermediary shall at all times use the latest documentation provided by the Company, Discretionary Manager or Fund Manager and will immediately destroy out of date stock when requested to do so by the Company.
- 5.7 Any request by the Intermediary for a Client transfer from or to the Intermediary shall be actioned or refused by the Company at its sole discretion and upon the Company's terms and conditions, with the Company taking into consideration any such information as it deems necessary. The Company reserves the right to contact the Client or any other third party for their confirmations or for any other reason and take such action as it deems necessary in relation to the Client transfer request.
